LIQUOR LICENSES

Will Oppose Grant to All Those Organizations on Residence Streets of City.

Renewed efforts against the granting of liquor licenses to clubs in residential districts will be made by the Anti-Saloon League in its hearings before the Excise Board, it was announced by E. Shoemaker, attorney for the eague today. adoption today by the Excise Board of several amendments to the rules and regulations governing the liquor traffic in the District.

in the District.

By eliminating the proviso that "this restriction shall not apply to hotels and ciubs," section 6 was amended to read "that no barroom license shall be granted on any side of a street where less than 50 per centum of any foot frontage between intersecting streets, excluding the parts of buildings wherein barroom licenses are held, is used for business purposes."

Attitude Not Changed.

It is not to be assumed from this, however, it was explained, that the board has changed its attitude with regard to licensing clubs and hotels. Such applications, it was said, will be considered on their merits. Under the board's regulations retail licenses are divided into three classes, bar only, res-taurant and club or hotel. The regula-tion as amended follows more closely tion as amended follows more closely the reading of the law.

Attorney Shoemaker will argue that not club not located in a street having less than 50 per cent business frontage can be licensed under the law. This would affect all the clubs now licensed with the exception of the Cosmos, the Jolly Fat Men's, and the National Press

Section 11 is amended so as to require posting on the building of a notice of the application from September 1 until after the hearing.

Heretofore the time of posting was from September 1 to September 15.

Rules on Protests. Section 13, as amended, provides that protests in writing against granting applications must be filed granting applications must be filed five days after date of the hearing. Ten days have been allowed heretofore.

An amendment to section 14 restricts the sale of liquor in restaurants to the barroom and dining rooms. Under previous regulations liquor was sold to males in any room on the premises having a restaurant license.

The first application considered today was that of the Metropolitan Company. Expriteenth street northwest, John H. Kirby. Protest was made by Attorney Shoemaker against maintenance of a door leading from the barroom into the lobby of the Riggs building. Attorney Shoemaker protested against granting of of a license to J. J. O'Donnell, 333 Pennsylvania southeast on the ground of proximity to the Metropolitan Presbyterian Church. Remeasurments will be made by the board in all questions of distances between saloons and schools, colleges, and places of religious worship.

HYATTSVILLE.

The women's auxiliary of Company F at a meeting in the municipal building last night decided to abandon the project of tendering the men of Company F a welcome dinner upon their arrival at Laurel. They will cooperate with other residents in giving them a reception either in the armory or Masonic hall here. The following committee was appointed for this purpose: Mrs. Oswald A Greagor, chairman; Mrs. George N. Wells, of Brentwood; Mrs. Charles R. Hutch-inson, Mrs. Ambrose O'Keefe, and Mrs. A. R. Beall of East Hyattsville.

Mayor John G. Holden has called a special meeting of the mayor and common council for tonight.

The Beltsville grange will give the third and fourth degrees to a large class of candidates tonight. A country supper will be served.

Today is the last chance to register. Offices are open until 7 o'clock. Next Tuesday is revision day when the names of those who have moved away or died will be erased from the books.

The condition of Helen McFarland, daughter of Councilman and Mrs. George M. McFarland, who recently underwent an operation at Georgetown hospital, is reported to be greatly improved.

Football Weather Greets Dodgers for Desperate Stand Against Red Sox.

sold and many applications have been turned down.

Interest in the series is now at fever heat. A crowd of hundreds of fans thronged Grand Central Station last night to greet the battling teams. The Dodgers and the Red Sox alike were given a rousing reception. It was necesary to rope off a passageway from the train shed exit to the main lobby of the station, to prevent the players from being overwhelmed by the enthusiastic fans.

"Babe" Ruth, who pitched yesterday's record-breaking game, and won for the Sox, was first recognized by the crowd when Boston arrived.

Path Londly Cheered.

Ruth Loudly Cheered. He was loudly cheered. The Dodgers hustled to their homes in Brooklyn immediately. They reported at Ebbets Field this morning and prepared for the effort of their life this afternoon.

Dutch Leonard is practically cer tain to draw the Boston assignment for slab duty in an effort to bring the Dodgers to the proverbial "last ditch" stage. Uncle Wilbert Robinson crossed everybody so completely son crossed everybody so completely and came so near being successful, by sending Smith to the mound yestetrday, that he might switch the cut again today.

Veteran Jack Coombs, who was expected to appear yesterday, is the most likely starter today, but Pfeffer is still in reserve, and there is also Marquard ready to come back.

The psychological side of the game, the breaking moment when a battle is won or lost on a single play, has crushed the Dodgers in both games to date. Each time the moment has appeared, the flash of a batted ball, the hurrying of feet on the paths, the swish as the runner hit the dirt for a slide—and then the break. A bobble somewhere, and the Dodgers have failen.

Cutshaw Is Victim

Cutshaw Is Victim.

Each time it has been George Cutshaw, hero of many a common, everyday National League championship contest, who has shook the chances of victory from under the eyes of the Dodgers. In the first game it was Cutshaw's boot at a crucial moment which shaw's boot at a crucial moment which allowed a run to score, and yesterday it was Cutshaw who, in the third inning, allowed his nerves to splinter Dodger hopes in the third inning. Without his bobble, a hesitating fumble of a ground ball he should have fielded easily. Everett Scott would not have scored from third, and the game would have ended in the ninth inning, with the Dodgers on top by a 1 to 0 score. Instead the contest sparkled through fourteen innings of the bitterest baseball fighting Boston has witnessed in many a day.

ball fighting Boston has witnessed in many a day.

Play after play stood out almost unexampled as the game wore on. Sherrod Smith, pitching his first world's series game, worked cooly and steadily, and his teammates, strung to the highest pitch, did superhuman fielding feats at times.

Hi Myers a Hero.

Hi Myers, used through the championship season as an alternate out-fielder when left-handers were opposing the Dodgers, became a hero. His ome run, smashed to center field in the first inning of play, was the only run the Dodgers registered. His elding twice saved the day for Brocklyn, once in the sixth, when he dived head foremost after a line drive off Hooper's bat and snared it, and again in the ninth, when he captured Hoblitzel's fly after a hard run. Brooklyn, powerful all year from an unsuccessful period in Boston. The Red Sox, also powerful at home and abroad, are leaving their native heath to battle on territory they never have been over before. Betting circles today are favoring the Red Sox more than ever in wagers on the outcome of the series. Odds of five to one are being offered, with few takers, that Carrigan's men will win the two games necessary to again become champions of the world. The advantage of two games is considered sufficient for the advance in the odds.

The Capitol Hill Literary Society held its first meeting of the season at the home of the newly elected president, Mrs. Mattie Queen Ewing, 1307 R street, last night. "The law saves to all retired officers or enlisted men, and to officers or enlisted men, and to officers or enlisted men of the organized militia, any pay, salary, or compensation denied them by reason of former decisions or constructions by this office of the section as formerly enacted," the Comptroller's ruling reads.

This ruling will affect a large number of men who were in the District militia, and at the same time in the executive departments.

U. S. ARMOR PLANT

wo Suburbs Indorse Washington's Efforts to Obtain Federal Factory.

Citizens' associations of two Washington suburbs have gone on record in indorsing the movement to obtain the Federal armor plate plant for the District.

The Randle Heights Citizens' Association last night approved the suggestion of C. A. Barker to work for the furtherance of the movement.

The Congress Heights Public Improvement Association also indorsed the movement at its session last night.

Randle Highlands Gets Behind Factory Effort

Members of the Randle Highlands Citizens' Association are not satisfied with the present general sale of firearms in the District of Columbia, and will immediately join the fight to obtain a restrictive law. S. E. Snyder presented the matter at a special meeting of the association last night. Other members of the association also spoke on the subject.

The association indorsed the movement to have the armor plant located in the District. C. A. Baker brought the matter to the attention of the association. Resolutions were adopted requesting the authorities to improve Forts Davis and Dupont, which were acquired some time ago as public parks; urging that additional street lights be established in the suburb, and the Pennsylvania avenue from Branch avenue to the District line be improved, especially that portion as far as the Bowen road, which contains the great dip, and makes the highway almost impassable during the bad seasons.

HE WORE THE BLUE FOR "UNCLE SAM"

William A. Schwartz, a Soldier Boy of '61, Relates Interesting Experience.

Any person can be well, wholesome, vivacious, and successful, have a clear skin, strong brain and perfect development. It is the heritage of every one, and can be attained if Nature is assisted in the proper way. The new herbal stomach remedy, Plant Juice, is designed for just that purpose—to assist Nature. It is a remedy that puts the stomach in perfect condition, thus acting directly on the blood, liver and kidneys.

stomach in perfect condition, thus acting directly on the blood, liver and kidneys.

Not a day passes but what testimonials are received from well known local people, giving glowing accounts of how they have been restored to health. Only recently, the following signed statement was received from Mr. William A. Schwartz, who resides at The Soldiers' Home in this city, and has many friends and acquaintances here. He said:

"I have suffered from stomach trouble, which took the form of indigestion, for 10 years; was bloated with gas, and suffered agony after eating. The gas pressed on my heart causing palpitation, and I was so nervous and restless I could never get a good night's sleep. I got so bad I could scarcely eat at all; I had dizzy spells, caused by a deranged liver, and my kidneys bothered me a good deal; was badly constipated, and took all kinds of medicines, which only gave me temporary relief. I had read and heard a great deal about Plant Juice and the wonderful cures that had been affected by it, so I decided to get a bottle and see what it would do for me. I have now taken it for some time, and can truthfully say that I never felt better in my life. It is certainly a wonderful medicine and worked like a charm in my case. I shall recommend it to all of my comrades."

Such words as these and those of many others which have been printed, have wide influence, for they come from men of standing and integrity, who have given Plant Juice a fair trial and have been greatly benefited.

The Plant Juice Man is at The People's Drug Store, corfer of 7th and E streets N. W., where he is daily meeting the local public, and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy.—Advt.
